LETTER FROM LEADERSHIP

In another breakthrough year of innovative research, advocacy, and education, the Concussion Legacy Foundation cemented its commitment to concussion management and preventing CTE worldwide.

In 2023, CLF maintained a trajectory of growth in size, influence, and capability to help those affected by brain injury. Thanks to the generous support of our donors and grantors, the CLF HelpLine has now connected more than 5,000 people with the care and support they need. Last year, our Patient & Caregiver Services team, which now includes four full-time staff members, proudly published Caregiver Guidebooks to support those navigating the challenges of persistent post-concussion symptoms and suspected CTE with loved ones (pg 22).

Our advocacy has led decisionmakers past the point of recognizing the issues; they now call us to workshop solutions. Our Stop Hitting Kids in the Head program continues to push sports governing bodies to delay the start of full contact to reduce CTE risk for their youngest athletes. Informed by data from the largest CTE study to date, CLF published the world's first CTE Prevention Protocol alongside the BU CTE Center. It provides a simple playbook for coaches and sports organizations to reduce exposure to repetitive head impacts. (pg 27).

In England, more than 80,000 fans at Wembley Stadium and millions of viewers saw CLF logos on the sidelines of the Community Shield match. They also heard the broadcast team seamlessly implement lessons from our pregame Concussion Reporting Workshop, part of a season long CLF Media Project partnership to educate Premier League journalists (pg 10).

Through tireless advocacy and research, CLF Australia and the Australian Sports Brain Bank are leading the way as the region confronts its sports concussion and CTE crises. In 2023, they diagnosed the first female athlete with CTE (pg 26).

The international reach of this work inspired supporters to step up their efforts to ensure CLF can maintain and expand these global conversations. Record-breaking fundraisers through the Race to END CTE (pg 32) and the Concussion Legacy Gala (pg 30) prove, to us, that our passionate supporters still trust CLF to deliver on our vision of concussion safety without compromise and a world without CTE.

We will never take that trust – or your support – for granted.

Sincerely,

Christopher Nowinski, PhD

ADVISORY ROLES

Concussion Legacy Foundation co-founders Robert Cantu, MD and Chris Nowinski, PhD are proud to serve as advisory to more professional and collegiate sports organizations than any concussion-focused non-profit in the world.

By working with professional and collegiate sports to educate stakeholders and created policy, CLF sets the example for high school and youth sports to follow.

Our Mission

The Concussion Legacy Foundation's mission is to support athletes, veterans, and all affected by concussions and CTE; to promote smarter sports and safer athletes through education and innovation; and to End CTE through prevention and research.

Our Vision

A world without CTE, and concussion safety without compromise.

Our Values

We act with respect, kindness, and empathy.

We are committed to diversity, equity, and inclusion.

We are driven by science.

We lead with courage.

We provide solutions and hope.

01

CLF CANADA

In 2023, CLF Canada expanded their reach and media presence to drive concussion and CTE education, advocacy, and research across Canada. The Canadian Concussion Centre joined the Global Brain Bank network to study the brains of Canadian military servicemembers, the HelpLine received a record number of cases, and for the first time, CLF Canada brought the Design Challenge to an Indigenous school and a foster care centre.

Highlights

Surpassed 500 Canadian HelpLine cases

Surpassed 1,000 Canadian brain pledges.

$1.2 million grant awarded to support the CLF Help-Line and Operation Brain Health for 3 years.

Alongside the Richard family, released the findings of Henri Richard's stage 3 CTE diagnosis, receiving coverage from more than 35 news outlets.

02

CLF UK

In 2023, CLF UK continued to advance concussion and CTE education, awareness, and research across the United Kingdom. Key initiatives included accelerating the reach of the CLF Media Project, educating medical students and youth athletes, supporting research, and engaging key stakeholders via the Brain Injury in Sport Working Group, led by Sir Chris Bryant.

Partnered with the Jeff Astle Foundation, the PFA, the FA, the EFL, and the Premier League to bring the Media Project to professional sports commentators and journalists throughout the 2023/24 season.

Nathan Howarth hosted the first webinar in the International CTE Awareness Month webinar series.

CLF AUSTRALIA

In 2023, CLF Australia capitalized on momentum gained following the launch to continue to drive discussion on concussion and CTE across Australia. CLF Australia received a consistent amount of earned media attention and participated in the Senate Inquiry on concussions and repeated head trauma in contact sports. CLF Australia launched their webinar series and hosted 6 in person events across 3 states, including their first annual Team Up Triathlon in Adelaide.

Launched the Race to End CTE in Melbourne and Sydney

PROGRAMMS

01

TEAM UP AGAINST CONCUSSIONS

TEAM UP AGAINST CONCUSSIONS (TUAC) is an education program designed to teach athletes to speak up for each other when they think their teammate may have a concussion.

CONCUSSION LEGACY CAPTAINS are CLF ambassadors committed to achieving our vision of concussion safety without compromise. Captains give the Team Up Against Concussions speech to their teams every season to set the tone that no athlete with a concussion should return to play before their brain is ready.

Highlights

22 Captains committed

USA Lacrosse TUSU Week was held in March 2023

USA Hockey TUAC Week was held in October 2023

02

MEDIA PROJECT

The CLF MEDIA PROJECT is the first and only concussion reporting curriculum designed specifically for sports media professionals and sports journalism students. Through more accurate reporting, sports media can provide children, parents, and coaches with potentially life-saving information, including how to recognize and respond to a concussion.

Highlights

Taught our two largest Concussion Reporting Workshop U sessions in CLF history, reaching 115 students at the University of Alabama and 125 students at Indiana University.

In 2023, taught the Concussion Reporting Workshop U to 589 students in 24 different classes at 17 different colleges in universities.

14 sports media members took the Concussion Reporting Certification, growing the list of Certified Fellows to 168.

STOP HITTING KIDS IN THE HEAD

The goal of STOP HITTING KIDS IN THE HEAD is to convince every sport to eliminate repetitive head impacts under the age of 14 by 2026 so we can eradicate new cases of CTE.

Here's a look at the global landscape of youth sports regulations to see where we are focusing our efforts:

RESEARCH

01

GLOBAL BRAIN BANK

The mission of the CLF Global Brain Bank is to accelerate research by collaborating with leading scientists at brain banks around the globe to understand, prevent, treat, and eventually cure CTE and other consequences of sports and military related brain trauma.

CLF continues to expand its reach globally by inviting more scientists to participate in this important work.

Highlights

The Canadian Concussion Centre joined the Global Brain Bank as the 6th institution in the network

Australian Sports Brain Bank diagnosed the first case of CTE in a female athlete

Researchers from the UNITE Brain Bank, Australian Sports Brain Bank, and Glasgow TBI Archive collaborated on a paper exploring CTE risk in rugby union

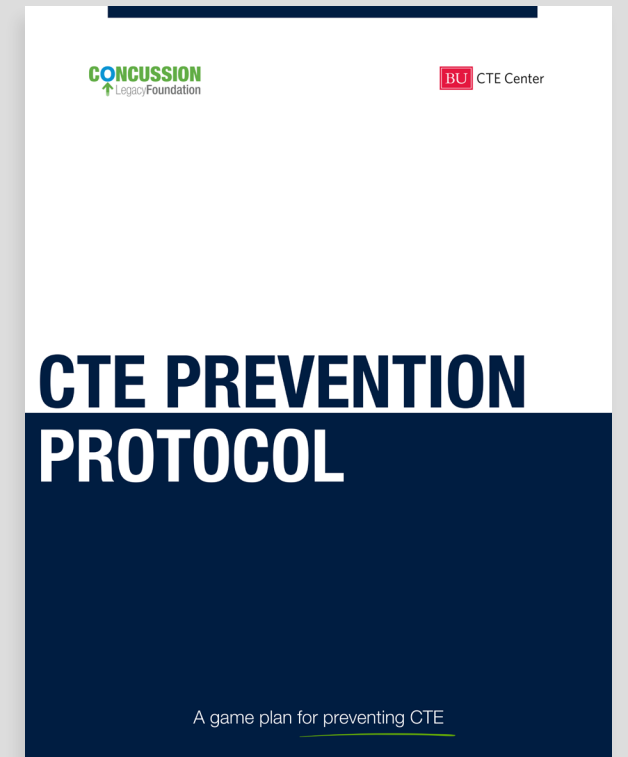

Researchers from the UNITE Brain Bank published a paper exploring the relationship between TBI, CTE, and suicide in brain donors under the age of 30

02

CTE PREVENTION PROTOCOL

In June, CLF and the BU CTE Center published the first CTE Prevention Protocol, which provides a simple playbook for coaches and sports organizations to prevent the degenerative brain disease diagnosed in nearly 1,000 athletes across more than a dozen contact sports.

The CTE Prevention Protocol was inspired by 15 years of BU CTE Center research investigating why some individuals exposed to head impacts develop CTE while others do not.
